SERVICE DETAILS AND POST CREMATION METAL RETENTION

Services begin on the hour and their duration is 60 minutes. This includes 40 minutes in the chapel; 10 minutes to pay respects to the family and view the floral tributes; with a further 10 minutes allowed to clear the site. The exception to this is the Personal Service which can begin either on the hour or half-hour and has a duration of 30 minutes. This includes 20 minutes in the chapel; 5 minutes to pay respects to the family and view the floral tributes; with a further 5 minutes to clear the site.

Service time slot will be advertised on our website unless box is ticked. ☐

Any special instructions:

For example: Horse Drawn Carriages,
Specialist Vehicles, Military Funeral Cortege,
Themed Service, etc.

If applicable I accept that following cremation, any metals present will be recovered from the cremated remains and recycled in order to comply with existing legislation, and I give my approval to this procedure. (Further details on this process can be obtained from your local Memoria crematorium). We will endeavour to cremate the deceased on the day of service however there are some circumstances where this is not possible.

If the service is to be recorded my signature also denotes that the minister's consent has been received.
